

Vocal Coaching/Singing Lessons with Laura Dean

Singing promotes good health, lifts the spirits, and provides a creative outlet! The voice is the one instrument we all carry with us all of the time! My goal with vocal coaching/singing lessons is to create a safe space for students to explore their natural singing voice while providing the skills and the know-how to sing with confidence and ease.

Vocal coaching and singing lessons are for:

- Piano or guitar students who want to add singing to their musicals skills set.
- Middle school/high school students who are preparing for musical theater or choir auditions.
- Middle/high school students who want to study singing
- Beginner or experienced adults who would like to build their repertoire or revisit some basic singing techniques
- Adults who would like to overcome their fear of singing in public! It's never too late

Lessons include:

- Physical Warm-ups: easy head to toe warm ups that prepares the body for singing
- Breath Work: how to use the breath for singing, breath support, and breath control
- Vocalizing: includes work on tone production, range, singing with ease, pronunciation, healthy singing
- Singing in a variety of styles including: art music, folk songs, popular songs, world music, and jazz standards.
- Improvisation
- Tips for singing expressively
- Music Reading: learning to read music on the staff, rhythms, articulations, expression marks, tempo marking.
- Sight Singing: look at a piece of music and be able to sing what is on the page.
- Performance Opportunities: in group class or recital situations